KIRRIEMUIR

The true community spirit was displayed last Saturday when a goodly number of farmers worked energetically in fencing the Cemetery. The Womens Institute raised the funds for the fence and posts some time ago. Teey graciously served refreshments during the work. The community at large is very much benefitted through this united effort of the W. I. and the U. F. A.

Keep your eyes open for the forthcoming election Contest between the Trail Rangers of Kirriemuir Church.

Mrs. H. B. Hennessy has recently undergone an operation in the Castor Hospital. Last reports state she is progressing as well as can be expected.

The mosquitos are so many and so fierce this year in the district, that many parents have been forced to keep their babies inside for several days.

Sloans team took a notion for a little exercise last Tuesday while hooked on to the drey, and after giving the town a very hurried once over, vamoosed down to the "Y" At writing we have not heard whether any damage was done by the run-aways

Crops in the district are looking fine, but more rain is needed to put them where they should be. From reports received we believe there is more acreage in crop this year than has been the case for quite a while. With a good rain now, prospects for the "bumper" are alluring.

When the Great War ended—yes, even before the joyful news of the signing of the Armistice—the astuteness and thoughtful men of all countries turned their attention to a consideration of the gigantic problem confronting civilization in the repair of the awful damage inflicted on the world. It was not the material damage so much that was the cause of deep concern, for, given time and money, destroyed cities, towns, industrial establishments, railways, mines and home buildings could be restored.

The real problem were the people themselves. With millions of the world's most able-bodied and virile young men killed, or maimed and weakened for life; with millions of women hopeless nervous wrecks as a result of the strain and hardships and sorrows through which they had passed; with millions of babies and young children under-nourished during the most vital years when wholesome food and plenty of it should have been forthcoming; and with the mental view of everybody far from normal, in many ways distorted, what, all thoughtful men and women asked themselves, of the future of the race, mentally, morally, physically? And if the race is weak in these respects, what of the State itself, because, after all, a nation is just what its people are. It is not wealth, or great industries, or large cities, or famous buildings that make a nation, but the people themselves.

The war had made vividly clear some things which a quarter of a century of peace might not have revealed with so much impressiveness. The war had given us a revelation, for it may fittingly be called a revelation, of the relative worth and ability of the ordinary man and woman. During the war the ordinary soldier, seaman and airman stuck to their duties and did them with a courage and endurance which have never been surpassed. The spirit of the race had not decayed. But the war had revealed also the shockingly poor physical condition of a great proportion of the men in all countries. In the alleged progress of civilization, in the organization of industries, in the development of big business for creating and controlling wealth, regard for the intrinsic worth of human life—of men and women in good health living and working under wholesome conditions—had been to a large extent neglected.

Think of the significance of these figures: During the last year of war, the number of men called up to the army in Great Britain was 2,425,184. Out of every nine men, three were fit and healthy, two were in inferior health, three might be described as physical wrecks, and one as a chronic invalid with a precarious hold on life. Since that was the physical condition of men at their most vigorous age, what would be the condition of health among the women and children? In other countries the examination of the men called to the colors revealed conditions somewhat similar. In Canada, with all her advantages of open spaces and outdoor lives, of the 362,605 draftees under the Military Service Act, 181,229, or about one-half, were found to be unfit for full service in the field. Even without war the races seemed to be heading for physical deterioration and disaster.

As a result of these shocking and altogether alarming disclosures, when the Covenant of the League of Nations was drafted, Article XXV, was inserted which binds every nation joining the League to encourage and promote a national Red Cross Society having as purposes "the improvement of health, the prevention of disease, and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world." The Red Cross was selected for this important work because of its international character, its splendid organization, and its wonderful record during the war.

It is the profound conviction of those who are impressed with the importance and possibilities of the ideals expressed in the Red Cross programme as above outlined that their realization is possible through the endorsement and support which universal membership in the Red Cross alone can give. Widespread and popular membership in the Red Cross is, therefore, the necessary condition of success in its Peace-time programme.

To attain that universal membership, a world-wide enrolment campaign is being held this year. The dates in the three Prairie Provinces of Canada are June 5 to 11. Membership in the Red Cross involves an annual fee of one dollar for adults, and of twenty-five cents for boys and girls under 18 years of age, but this is the only—and incidental—financial aspect of the membership enrolment campaign.

It is the intelligent interest, the active sympathy, the whole-hearted support of all people in a nation-wide, yes, world-wide, Crusade for Good Health that the Red Cross desires, and to assure this it asks every man, woman and child to join the Red Cross during the week of June 5 to 11.

Following all previous wars, the Red Cross with its work for the time being completed, fell into a state of disorganization. When the war drums sounded in 1914, the Red Cross had to undertake all the work of home organization before it could begin its work for the soldiers in the field. Now, however, while carrying on its great Peace-time programme for the welfare and betterment of all mankind, it will be maintained fully organized, efficient and ready to act should Canada ever again be called to arms.

The Red Cross demonstrated that it was worthy of support during the war. Having now highly resolved to dedicate itself to the task of carrying out the obligations imposed upon it in the Covenant of the League of Nations, it can be trusted to faithfully endeavor to render real Peace-time service to Canada and its people. Therefore—Join the Red Cross.

Fire Protection in Finland

Government Compels Every Building To Have a Ladder.

Finland takes more precautions than any other nation to protect itself against fire. Indeed, it is a nation of fire-escapes, for by government enactment it is compulsory for any building or dwelling to be provided with means by which the occupants can escape in the event of an outbreak of fire. Ladder-making for domestic use is one of the country's most profitable industries. From the most palatial to the lowliest every home in the country must have its ladder reposing against the wall on the outside or lying along the ground within easy reach.

The government regulation, which makes it obligatory upon the owners of every building to provide it with a ladder, is an old one, and is an echo of the days when the houses and towns of the country were entirely of wood. Modern building construction of stone and brick has made no change in the law.

WHEN BABY IS SICK

When the baby is sick—when he is cross and peevish; cries a great deal and is a constant worry to the mother—he needs Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are an ideal medicine for little ones. They are a gentle but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, banish constipation and indigestion, break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Philippe Payen, St. Flavien, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been a wonderful help to me in the case of my baby and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Alberta Erecting

Wireless Station

Will Be Tallest and Most Powerful in Province.

With six aeroplane hangars already erected on the High River government aerodrome field in Southern Alberta and with the office building completed, the tenders for the erection of the most powerful wireless station in the province and the workshops have just been received, and it is expected that work will start on these projects within the next two or three weeks.

The wireless station will be able to send messages to Vancouver and over the Pacific coast, and will be taller and more powerful than any yet erected in this province. The pole will have been erected within about ten days.

The six hangars now completed on the field are modern Bessemer hangars, which were brought over from France, where they were used by the Royal Air Force during the war. Each of them will accommodate about three aeroplanes.

Disturbing Element.

A well-to-do Scottish woman one day said to her gardener:

"Man Tammas, I wonder you don't get married. You've a nice house, and all you want to complete it is a wife. You know the first gardener that ever lived had a wife."

"Quite right, missus, quite right," said Thomas, "but he didna keep his job long after he got the wife."—The Watchman-Examiner, New York.

Good Canadian Citizens

Scandinavians Are Hardworking and Intensely Patriotic.

A most gratifying feature of Scandinavian settlement in Canada is that it is almost wholly agricultural, and in the west they will be found in the richest and most progressive districts. While retaining their national individuality, their customs, language and religion, they are British in sentiment and intensely patriotic, as their fine contribution to Canada's army evidenced. With an inherent realization of their own worth, they stand, without embarrassment, upon their own feet, and are absorbed as Canadians without losing their individual qualities. Clean-blooded, thrifty, ambitious and hardworking, they are of the best of Europe's contribution to a pioneer nation.

DIET NOT EVERYTHING IN KEEPING HEALTHY

Your table may be loaded with food digestible and wholesome, yet you don't get strong. What's the trouble? The liver is lazy, stomach is overloaded, the bowels are not active. Relief is quickly supplied by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They make weak sickly people strong and well because they keep the system clear of impurities. Those who regulate the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills don't have indigestion or constipated headaches, they feel enlivened all over, because their system is kept in smooth running order. To revitalize and stimulate your whole being, to shake off lethargy and tiredness, nothing compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which certainly bring good looks, good spirits, good health. 25c all dealers, or The Catarrhzone Co., Montreal.

The Oil for the Farmer.—A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the farm house will save many a journey for the doctor. It is not only good for the children when taken with colds and croup, and for the mature who suffer from pains and aches, but there are directions for its use on sick cattle. There should always be a bottle of it in the house.

Truth is stranger than fiction to most people, probably because they don't care for an introduction.

If Your Skin is 'Rashy' use Zam-Buk

Mr. R. H. Barker, Glenora, Ont., writes: "My skin broke into an itchy rash which spread so badly over my face that I was soon too disfigured to go about. Within a week Zam-Buk caused the eruptions to die away. It soothed and purified my skin so thoroughly that one could scarcely credit how bad it had been." Pure herbal Zam-Buk is unequalled for Pimples, Dietsches, Itch, Acne, Eczema, Ulcers, etc. See box.

Why Rain Melts Rocks

Due to Carbonic and Nitric Acid In Water.

When we see great boulders of hard rock such as granite, it seems almost incredible that rain has the power of melting them.

In rain there are two things in addition to water which assist this wonderful process. These are nitric acid and carbonic acid, and these are formed in the rain when the oxygen and nitrogen become charged with electricity as so often happens during thunderstorms.

Of these two acids that slowly eat their way into the rocks, perhaps carbonic is the more important.

By its action it gradually melts the hard granite upon which the rain falls and so transforms it, first into sandstone and afterwards into sand.

Of course this process is a very slow one, but it goes on with a wonderful certainty.

These two acids in rain are even more important in their relation to life, for carbonic and nitric acids form part of the food upon which all plants live.

The University of Calcutta has 26,000 students, the largest enrolment of any university in the British Empire.

The Poor Man's Friend.—Put up in small bottles that are easily portable and sold for a very small sum, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil possesses power in concentrated form. Its cheapness and the varied uses to which it can be put make it the poor man's friend. No dealer's stock is complete without it.

The House On Mercy Street

By Florence Kerigan

Miss Angela got her finger on a tiny little bell, and at once the throng of boys who were whooping madly up and down the hall and in and out of the rooms of the house on Mercy Street, came together in the living room and settled down to listen to the afternoon story.

They just adored Miss Angela. From the time she rented the little house and turned it into a clubhouse for the rough, tough dirty little boys of the neighborhood, they loved her. They exhibited her to their rough, tough, dirty friends with pride, and gradually became less rough, and less tough, and washed their faces now and then.

On that particular afternoon, when the soft air blew in the open window and made her fair hair stand out from her head like a misty, golden halo, and shook the faint perfume out of the bowl of lilacs on the table, she announced that she was going to tell them a story of knights and fair ladies and the spring. She settled herself in the seat of honor, and swept the circle of faces with her brown eyes which Abie Rabinowitz said were "just like these here, now, pansy flowers, ain't they?"—brown eyes which smiled at them all, from Abie to the mysterious, well-dressed, perfect-mannered Jack who came in every day to play.

Then, very simply and dramatically, she told the story of Sir Galahad and the Holy Grail, and all her hearers listened spellbound. And when it came to an end, they sat silent for a moment, then clamored for another.

Next, she told them a rollicking Irish folk-tale that made them laugh, and followed it with others until a factory whistle told her it was five o'clock and closing time for the clubhouse.

They found their hats and trooped out, but Miss Angela remained, and her shoulders drooped with sudden sadness.

That morning she had received a letter saying that she would have to leave the dear little house on Mercy Street, as the landlord wanted it for one of his friends. She had at once called up several influential men and tried to interest them in a campaign for establishing a community clubhouse to carry on the work begun, but without result. One of the men, John Davenport, told her frankly, that he was decidedly against such work—that the poor of the city could rise if they wished, without such waste of money. Still, with a heavy heart Miss Angela fought the thought of giving up her boys.

On Friday afternoon the boys were grouped about the piano singing a few favorite songs when a man's figure stopped in the doorway.

Miss Angela recognized the clear-cut, rather stern face of Mr. Davenport, and wondered what had brought him there. At the same instant Jack cried, "Dad!"

"Jack, what are you doing here?" The man's voice was well under control, but Miss Angela could see that he was very angry.

Jack stepped out bravely. "Dad, I'm sorry it had to be this way—but Hannah wouldn't let me come when I asked her. And they were having such fun! I get so tired playing by myself, Dad! Here we have the grandest times! Mickey Mulligan—their's Mickey over there, has a sister and two rabbits and some white mice, and his father sings the funniest songs. And Abie Rabinowitz lives at a jeweler's store and his father let me look at some stones just like those of Mother's."

"Why, it's preposterous!" gasped Mr. Davenport. "I'm surprised at you, Jack. You, with all you have and all you are, coming here like this and playing with dirty ragamuffins!"

Jack squared his shoulders. "I haven't a thing. I haven't a mother to sing to me or smooth my hair or make me little cakes like Jimmy Casey's mother does, and I have no rabbits or cats or even a puppy—why, I've never even had mumps or measles! And I can't sing like Romolo Galacini, or paint like Olaf Nels. I've just got a lot of old money that won't buy the things I want!" His lip quivered suddenly. "I love them all so much—and—and I never loved anybody before!"

"Old money that won't buy what I want!" The words struck deep, and made him think of the sweet wife money had not been able to hold—of the happiness that money had not brought him—of the mansion which held everything but love and joy.

Mickey Mulligan stepped to Jack's side. "If ye please, he's a good guy even if he is a swell, and we like him, sorr."

"Suppose you boys go outside and play," in a softer tone. "Miss Sheridan, will you tell me about this business?"

Miss Angela drew up a chair for her guest, and told him the whole story of the club and what she tried to make it stand for and the love of it made her eloquent. Her enthusiasm was infectious and at the end of an hour he was making plans with her for a larger club that would broaden into athletic activities. She shook her head, sadly.

"We're not all millionaires, Mr. Davenport."

"Don't you understand? I want to do it with you. You must count me in on it. Why, I wouldn't take a million dollars for the way these boys treat my son and the happiness they and you have given him. So, I'll see an architect tomorrow and we'll have a regular clubhouse right in this neighborhood!"

In spite of her protestations, he carried out his purpose and formed a habit of dropping in during their play hour and showing her the latest plans, and talking over new things he had thought of.

Then, one day, he brought some new plans for her inspection. "Don't you think," wistfully, laying them before her, "that you could make a home out of one of these for you and me and a lonely little boy that never loved anyone before?"

Miss Angela promptly became very rosy and confused, but her answer must have been satisfactory, for some months later, the boys all met for a feast of ice-cream and cake on a very joyous occasion. And they presented her with a solid silver spoon bought with their own savings from Abie Rabinowitz's father who was a jeweler.

Another Hen Breaks Record.

A hen owned by T. N. Mitchell, of Byron Central, Mich., laid double-yolked eggs every day for three weeks and then produced an egg that weighed six ounces and measured nine and five-sixteenths inches around the long way and one-half inch around the centre. It contained two yolks besides perfect normal sized egg.

A Friend To the Aged!

When men and women get past middle life, their energy and activity, in many instances, begin to decline, and their general vitality is on the wane.

The heart action becomes weak and uncertain and the nerves more or less unsteady.

Little sicknesses and ailments seem harder to shake off than formerly, and here and there evidences of a breakdown begin to appear.

Those who wish to maintain their health and vigor and retain their energy unimpaired should use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make the heart beat strong and regular, brace up and invigorate the nervous system, improve the memory, and impart a sense of buoyancy to the entire system.

Mrs. James Perry, Rellaw, Alta., writes:—"Some months ago I was not feeling well, my heart bothered me quite a lot, and my whole system seemed out of order. I sent and got two boxes of your pills. I took them a few days and my, what a change there was in me, and when I had taken the two boxes I felt so much better I quit them. Now I take them at intervals, and am fine although 72 years of age."

Why The Complaint.

Leaders of the Welsh miners protest against the use of troops which they term violence. Anything more violent than threatening the country with starvation by tying up all trains and stopping industries is hard to imagine.

Worm as Thin as Straw.

Samoa boasts a scrawny of extreme slenderness, like a fine straw, which is eaten like the oyster, both raw and cooked.

Lord Fisher's "Light Cruisers"

Chancellor Did Not Specify Size of Light Craft.

A characteristic story of the late Lord Fisher, and his capacity for getting his ideas carried out while at the Admiralty during the war, was told by Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick Tudor at a meeting of the Institution of Naval Architects.

One day early in the struggle, when it was believed that the conflict would not last very long, Admiral Tudor said Lord Fisher came into his room and told him he had just had a long conversation with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who had agreed to the building of light craft up to light cruisers to any extent. The Chancellor of the Exchequer had not said how big the light cruisers were to be, so Lord Fisher said, "We will build two whoppers with 15-in. guns, big enough to knock any German light cruiser off the sea." This was the origin of the Furious, the Glorious and other ships of that class.

Dairy Products In Alberta.

The value of creamery butter produced in the Province of Alberta during the year 1920 amounted to $5,512,500, while the value of dairy butter amounted to $25,972,500.

His Flesh Horribly Burnt

His druggist sold him a cheap Acid corn remedy, instead of giving him good old reliable Putnam's Corn Extractor which has been for fifty years the Standard remover of corns and warts. "Putnam's" never fails, it is always a success. 25c everywhere. Refuse a substitute.

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kiever.

Vancouver, B.C.—"I am pleased to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a lot of good. I can now walk about without the aid of a support and feel real strong again. A nurse advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and it's certainly helping me. It seems like Heaven to be relieved after months of pain."—Mrs. H. W. BAKER, 3874 10th Ave. West, Vancouver, B.C.

Albert Co., N.B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines and they have done me a lot of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as we live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this may help some one else."—Mrs. Wm. B. KIEVER, Upper New Horton, Albert Co., N.B.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

German Prison Camps.

The Leipzig trials of German offenders may not bring many convictions or heavy penalties, but the evidence taken in London in respect to prison camps shows that the prosecutions are serious. Accounts given by former prisoners provoke indignation, but only confirm the statements of Canadian prisoners who have passed through some of these camps.—Vancouver Province.

Are You Human?

A little baby. A little child. Don't they appeal to you? Doesn't your heart yearn to pick them up, to cuddle them close to you, to shield them from all harm? sure it does else you're not human. Being human you love them. Their very helplessness makes you reach out in all your strength to aid them. In health there's no flower so beautiful. In illness there's no sight so black.

Save them then. Use every precaution. Take no chance.

When sickness comes, as sickness will, remember it's just a baby, just a child and if the Physician isn't at hand don't try some remedy that you may have around the house for your own use.

Fletcher's Castoria was made especially for babies' ills and you can use it with perfect safety as any doctor will tell you. Keep it in the house.

Children Cry For

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrup was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

Old Fort Ellis and Sioux Indians

Crossing the Plains to Fort Carlton
Summer 1875.

By O-GE-MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

On looking over my last article it may be that my readers' will be left with the impression that Chief Factor Archie McDonald was a tyrannical, unjust man, but this was by no means the case. You, however, must understand that Hudson's Bay officers in charge of districts at this time had practically absolute powers. Truly, Canada had taken over the country, but her jurisdiction for all practical purposes ended when you left Fort Garry (now Winnipeg), and in the great realm of the Northwest the H. B. Co. ruled supreme. They had jails at many of their head posts, with handcuffs and leg irons for unruly servants, or law-breaking Indians, and they used them when required. Give absolute authority to any man and he is apt to become more or less of a despot. Shortly after leaving the Hudson's Bay service in 1883, and being at that time in poor health and circumstances, Mr. Archie McDonald was exceedingly kind and helped me to get a start on my own account.

To resume our trip across the plains. The rate of progress daily was governed by that of the loaded carts, whose squeals from wooden axles could be heard for miles, in spite of constant applications of grease. From twenty to twenty-five miles daily was a fair average and one must know that the ponies subsisted entirely on grass, as oats were unknown in the wilds. Consequently the men would start with the carts very early in the morning, while the bourgeois and us clerks would have breakfast much later and easily catch up with the train for dinner. Ahead of the party rode Chief Guide Jeune Homme, generally with me by his side, thirsting to imbibe all the plainsman's lore possible, and sometimes the other clerks were with us. Armed guards had to be set nightly, and the horses watched very carefully, for stealing was rife, and no doubt our large brigade was spied upon from time to time by scouting Indians. The prairie was covered with fresh buffalo sign and the guide's opinion was that a large herd was just to the south of us. In fact a few old bulls were sighted by our riders, but Mr. Ewen would not allow any hunting for fear of laming or injuring the horses, and this much to the disgust of my youngsters who were all anxious to shoot a buffalo.

About the tenth day out we met a small war party of Saukewau coming in from the great plains to the southwest, en route to Fort Qu'Appelle. They met us all marching on foot, with drums beating, their headmen rigged out in scarlet cloth, paint and feathers galore. There was the usual shake hands and a smoke, then small presents were handed to them by Mr. McDonald and, in return, we received a welcome supply of tender young buffalo meat just killed the day before. They had no carts, only travois, that is the lodge poles, two of them lashed on each side of a pony, a parchment laced across behind the horse and on this robes, dressed buffalo leather, dried meat and pemican were piled, even their large split eared dogs were laden in the same way. With the exception of a violent wind-storm that made things lively for a while, nothing of importance happened until we reached the south branch of the Saskatchewan, and here we had some fun in crossing the river, there being no ferry. We made rafts of the large wooden cart wheels over which buffalo parchments were laced secretly, and in the centre of these rude craft were placed the women and children, all baggage, freight, etc. Swimmers were the motive power, and I could not say how many times I crossed the river. The large band of ponies were left to the last and Jeune Homme and I took them across, he explaining that on no account must we allow them to circle, but keep them going in a direct course, the remedy if one turned being to splash water in their faces. All went well but it took several days before the whole outfit was safely across. Another day's travel took us to Fort Carlton, which, unlike Ellis, was situated in the valley of the North Branch, close to the river, we arriving there without the loss of a pony or a pound of freight, much to the satisfaction of Chief Factor Lawrence Clark who ruled supreme over the Saskatchewan district with Carlton as headquarters. The fort was much on the same plan as Ellis, but in better order. This fine establishment was burnt in 1885 by accident, as the Mounted Police and Volunteers were evacuating it, after the defeat at Duck Lake.

I was detailed to lend a hand in the trading store and daily my erstwhile companions left for their various destinations. Some days after my arrival a packet arrived by canoe from Cumberland House (down the river), and that evening I was summoned to the office, where, in addition to Mr. Clarke, was Inspecting Chief Factor Robert Hamilton. They informed me there was a pressing vacancy at Cumberland, and they were considering changing my appointment from Mackenzie River to that point, but they would like to hear my views. It was all one to me, and so I told them, and it was then decided that I go down the river on the first opportunity. Mr. Hamilton, who came from Peterboro, Ont., and was an old friend of my father's, gave me much wise and kindly advice as to my future in the service where he had spent practically his life time.

Several weeks passed in very pleasant company as Mr. Clarke had a lovely daughter and there were several other ladies at the fort. Picnics, duck shooting and boating were the principal amusements and we, as birds of passage, were not asked to work very hard. A York boat arrived from up the river, and I received orders to embark next morning. The crew were Red River half-breeds and I took up my place in the stern sheets after saying good-bye all round. We stopped at Ft. La Corne for a short time, one Geo. Goodfellow was in charge, and I did not think then we would have stirring times together later on, but that, to quote Kipling, is another story. Drifting at night and occasionally rowing in the daytime, four days took us to the mouth of the Big Stone River, which empties out of Cumberland Lake into the Saskatchewan. A short pull against a strong current took us up to Cumberland Lake, which is quite an extensive sheet of water, and in a few minutes more we were at the wharf of the old historic Cumberland House which, it is said, was the first post established by the Hudson's Bay Company on the Saskatchewan River. Here ruled supreme Factor Horace Belanger, a French-Canadian, a man of great girth and jovial temperament, very widely known and much liked. He was a half-brother of Letellier de St. Just, at one time Lieut.-Governor of the province of Quebec.

Could Not Escape Law

Man Wanted in Saskatoon Arrested in Scotland.

Saskatoon.—The long arm of the law reached out from Saskatoon to Edinburgh, Scotland, and gathered in Joseph Murray, alias Joshua Murray, wanted here since last December for a $700 forgery. Tattooed fingers of women and King William on horseback betrayed Murray to the Scottish police. The man will be brought back here for trial.

Belgium-Luxembourg Treaty.

Brussels.—An agreement has been reached after months of negotiations between Belgium and Luxembourg and a treaty was initiated by M. Jaspard, for Belgium and Emile Reuter, the Luxembourg foreign minister.

Ex-Kaiser's Son Convinced.

Berlin.—Eitel Frederick, second son of former Emperor William, was found guilty of illegally exporting capital to Holland through the firm of Philippssohn, Grusser & Company.

Leader of Progressive Agriculture

Mr. F. Hedley Auld, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Saskatchewan.

Russians Sent Back To Canada

Russian Soviet Government Refused Them Admittance to Country.

New York.—Russians from Canada who attempted to return to Russia on the steamer Balminger, have been refused admission, and have been forced to return to Canada, according to a cablegram received at the office of "Soviet Russia" in New York. The message was sent by Maxim Litvinov, representative of the Russian Soviet Government at Reval, and is dated May 17.

The message reads: "The steamer Balminger with a number of Russians from Canada arrived at Reval, but on account of our refusal to admit the passengers into Russia, was compelled to take them back. Give this fact the widest publicity, warning Russians against any attempt to reach Russia without passports issued by a Soviet representative."

Fix Time Limit

For Disarmament

Allies Demand Reduction of German Army By June 30.

Berlin.—The time limit for disarmament by Germany is fixed absolutely as June 30 in an allied note presented to the German Government. The note which concerns execution of the recent ultimatum, demands that the organization of the German army of 100,000 be brought into conformity with the peace treaty by June 15, superfluous munitions and unauthorized fortress equipment surrendered by May 31 and all arms in possession of civilians by June 10.

Germany is required to endorse by May 30 the list of munition factories authorized by the Allies, and stop the output of unauthorized factories. The note further deals with the question of police and demands a reduction in all classes of police to a total of 150,000 by July 15.

Swedes Lower

Cost Of Production

Wage Earners Resist Effort But Start Has Been Made.

Stockholm.—An effort to reduce wages and cost of production to the present lower level of prices is being resisted by Swedish wage earners generally, but a start has been made in the wood pulp and cellulose industry where wages have been lowered 15 per cent.

One of the largest electrical companies has also come to an agreement with its operatives for an adjustment to a lower basis.

Development of Holy Land.

London.—Headquarters of the World Zionist Organization received a declaration of the British Colonial Office that the British Government desires it clearly understood that in accepting the mandate for Palestine it is determined to maintain order in the country, and to develop all its natural resources for the benefit of the entire population.

Old Time Engineer At Age Of 76 Goes Back To Work On C.N.R.R.

"Although I am now past seventy-six years of age I am working every day, for Tanlac has put me back on the job after I had given up all work and didn't think I could ever get well," recently said C. L. Skinnick, 520 Maryland St., Winnipeg. Mr. Skinnick has spent the greater portion of his life on the sea, being Chief Engineer on several of the largest ocean liners plying the Atlantic. Twenty years ago he gave up the sea and is now employed as stationary engineer by the Canadian National Railway.

"There is one thing I hope I never have again," he went on, "and that is rheumatism. It simply had the best of me and I was practically helpless. It had started four years before and I was so crippled up I couldn't do a lick of work. My knees were actually as stiff as boards and of mornings I had an awful time trying to get clothes on; why, the pains nearly killed me. My appetite went back on me and I got so I didn't want to eat a thing. I didn't know what a good night's rest meant and I was as weak as a baby."

"But it's all over with now, thank goodness. Tanlac has simply made a clean sweep of all my troubles and so has that stiffness and I am eating hearty and sleeping fine like I used to years ago. I take pleasure in speaking a good word for Tanlac. It has certainly done great work for me."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Lloyd George Says Britain Must Support Treaty

Premier Will Make No Retraction From Statements Regarding Silesia.

London.—Mr. Lloyd George issued a statement reiterating the British attitude toward the Upper Silesian question expressed by him in his recent speech in the House of Commons and disclaiming responsibility for the "distorted reports in the French newspapers."

In the course of the statement, Mr. Lloyd George said: "The fate of Upper Silesia must be decided by the Supreme Council, and not by Korfanty."

He continued: "Children of the treaty cannot be allowed to break crockery in Europe with impunity. Somebody must place a restraining hand on them; otherwise there will be continual trouble."

"Great Britain," he added, "cannot consent to stand by while the treaty her representatives signed less than two years ago is being trampled upon."

The prime minister's statement began as follows: "I adhere to the statement I made in the House of Commons on the subject of Silesia. Naturally, I can only accept responsibility for what I actually said and not the truncated and distorted reports in the French newspapers. The almost unanimous approval given by the United States and the Italian, as well as the British press to the sentiments I then expressed, shows that the great nations who stood by the side of France in the war mean to interpret the treaty of Versailles fairly."

Crowds Jeer London Radicals

Meeting Broken Up By Cheers For King and Queen.

London.—The temper of the people toward the Communists who were permitted to preach their doctrines here unhindered, was shown by an incident in Trafalgar Square the other day.

After the strains of the "Red Flag" had been started at a Communist meeting, a former officer, wounded so badly he could scarcely stand, stood up in front of the crowd numbering several thousand, and called for cheers for the King.

The response to his appeal was ear-splitting. This so enraged one of the women members of the Communist crowd that she rushed upon the officer and cuffed him roundly. Therefore he called for three cheers for the Queen, the Prince of Wales and finally for law and order.

This broke up the meeting.

May Get Share

Of First Payment

Canada Entitled to Portion of Reparations Money.

Ottawa.—A small proportion of the first German payment on reparations may come to Canada. The payment of 150,000,000 gold marks made, will, it is stated here, be applied to the cost of the Allied army of occupation. As Canada contributed a small number of men to the army of occupation for a short time immediately after the armistice, she may be the recipient of an amount partially to cover her expenditure.

New Flying Director.

Vancouver.—Captain A. G. Goulding, of the Dominion Air Board, who has arrived in the city, is to be appointed director of civil flying operations in the west, according to an announcement made by Air Board officials. His office will be in Edmonton.

Soldiers Take Places

Of Women Clerks

Government Offices in Rome Taking On Disabled Men.

Rome.—The Association of Soldiers disabled in the war has invaded the offices of the state railways throughout Italy, with the object of preventing women from continuing their work.

At meetings, in which men clerks participated, it was decided to continue the agitation until all of the 5,000 disabled men who had applied for posts had been substituted for women clerks in government offices. The agitation is spreading.

The disabled men propose that only such women clerks should be retained in Government service as can prove that they are compelled to earn a living and can find no other occupation.

U.S. Objects To Salmon Treaty

Declare It Would Benefit Canadian Fishermen Only.

Washington.—The pending treaty between the United States and Great Britain to regulate sockeye salmon fishing in the waters of British Columbia and the state of Washington would operate to the benefit of the Canadian fishermen and the injury of United States fishermen, the senate foreign relations committee was told by Governor Hark of Washington, and Senator Jones, of the same state.

The witnesses declared that the treaty would regulate fishing only in part of Canadian waters, while it would restrict fishing in all Washington sockeye waters. Governor Hart said the state of Washington had enacted new laws, which would protect the salmon.

Last Sunday the Married men of Monitor and district met defeat at the hands of the single element, to the tune of 11 to 4. It must be said though, that Compeer showed a fine spirit of sportsmanship last Tuesday. Although minus their battery and sure of defeat, they played the game right through with pep. A similar situation happened last year when Monitor visited Compeer and left their battery behind. Come again, Compeer—there lots of room in town.

Renew Your Membership In The RED CROSS

During the war everybody gave to the Red Cross. In these Western Provinces, hundreds of thousands of citizens joined in the greatest flood of gifts ever poured through a single voluntary organization.

Because the need was vital, the emergency ever pressing, there was little formality of membership. Everybody belonged to and was a part of the war-time organization of the Red Cross.

Red Cross now has peace-time duties just as important to humanity as its greatest service of devotion in time of war. The Red Cross Societies of the world have leagued together in a broad-gauge, carefully planned continuous campaign—

For the Improvement of Health, the Prevention of Disease and the Mitigation of Suffering Throughout the World.

This work is to be carried out at home, right here in our own country by our own Red Cross and simultaneously in every one of the thirty-one countries associated in the World League of Red Cross Societies.

The Red Cross peace-time crusade for good health is separate and distinct from the war work of the Red Cross or the great task that it is still carrying on, growing out of its care of those who suffered in the war. To endorse, support and carry on its peace programme the Red Cross asks the approval of every citizen through the enrolment of his or her individual membership. The Membership Fee is $1.00 per year. The payment of this dollar when you enroll your name is all the money the Red Cross is asking of you.

As the outward and visible sign of your faith in the Red Cross, your participation in its good work, your support of its world-wide mission for the improvement of conditions under which humanity lives.

Red Cross Notes

A highly enthusiastic meeting of the Monitor Red Cross Society was held last Friday at New Bridgen. The School was packed to the limit, and we must say the greatest credit is due the New Brigdenites for their splendid spirit in turning out for this work in such numbers. Apropos of the coming Membership Campaign, volunteers were called for at this meeting to canvas the district, and practically every person present offered their services. At the dance which followed, the floor was so full, that the dancers had to take turns in going on. The thanks of the Monitor Branch are extended to the ladies also, who so kindly and generously fed the bunch during the evening. Well done New Bridgen.

The next meeting to be held under the auspices of the Red Cross, will be held at Gregerson School, TO-NIGHT. And the one following at Minor on June 3rd.

You are reminded of the postponed meeting which was to have been held in Monitor on May 26th. This meeting will now be held on Wednesday June 1st, and we are to have the privilege of listening to Mrs. C. B. Waughen, the Vice President and Hon. Secretary of the Canadian Red Cross Society, Alberta Division. This meeting will be held in the Big Hall at 7:30 p.m. and it is hoped that everyone will be present as a great deal depends on this particular gathering.
